Melbourne Rudolf Steiner School (MRSS) is committed to the safety and well-being of all children and young people. This will be a primary focus of our care and decision-making. MRSS has zero tolerance for child abuse. MRSS is committed to providing a child-safe environment where children and young people are safe and feel safe, and their voices are heard about decisions that affect their lives. Particular attention will be paid to the cultural safety of Aboriginal children and children from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, as well as the safety of children with a disability. Every person involved in MRSS has a responsibility to understand the important and specific role he/she plays individually and collectively to ensure that the well-being and safety of all children and young people is at the forefront of all they do and every decision they make.
