

CASUAL OUTDOOR EDUCATION POSITIONS

Melbourne Rudolf Steiner School is a K-12 co-educational, non-denominational school situated in the outer eastern suburb of Warranwood. MRSS has always cherished the connection between the natural world and the children within its care. Our Outdoor Education Program includes camps across most year levels, with a focal point being an extended multi-camp program in Year 9. The primary ethos of connection with the natural world continues to be the driving force behind our outdoor program and has remained unchanged over many years.

We offer an extensive place-oriented program, provided to children as a cohesive sequence of trips from Class 3 through to Year 11. We utilise a variety of activities (including bushwalking, canoeing, surfing, snorkelling, rock climbing and cycling) to engage deeply with a wide variety of different places through a mobile program.

We are seeking casual, qualified Outdoor Educators. A Wilderness First Aid qualification and Community Surf Life Saving Certificate (or Surf Bronze) are mandatory. Instructor and/or guide qualifications in one or more other outdoor activities, HR or MR licence, a knowledge of, or interest in developing an understanding of Steiner education and tertiary education in associated fields are all highly desirable.

Applicants must be willing to work collaboratively with the Outdoor Education team and with the broader school to nourish and enhance this program. This is a field position with camps ranging from 3 to 12 days in the field. The work can be demanding and requires a reasonable degree of physical capacity.

Applicants must have a sound understanding of, and commitment to, current Child Safety Outdoor Standards. Only people with the right to work in this country may apply for this position.

Applicants should obtain a copy of the Position Description by emailing office@mrss.vic.edu.au. All applications should be sent with a cover letter and current CV including the names and contact details of two professional referees, by Sunday 19th January 2025.

Melbourne Rudolf Steiner School (MRSS) is committed to the safety and well-being of all children and young people. This will be a primary focus of our care and decision-making. MRSS has zero tolerance for child abuse. MRSS is committed to providing a child-safe environment where children and young people are safe and feel safe, and their voices are heard about decisions that affect their lives. Particular attention will be paid to the cultural safety of Aboriginal children and children from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, as well as the safety of children with a disability. Every person involved in MRSS has a responsibility to understand the important and specific role he/she plays individually and collectively to ensure that the wellbeing and safety of all children and young people is at the forefront of all they do and every decision they make.
